

February Trip 2012

My next trip to Rwanda is February 2-29. Bob Paddock will join me for the first part of this trip. Bob is the preacher at the Cornerstone Church of Christ in Chatham, VA. Rwanda Challenge serves under the oversight of Cornerstone Church. Bob and I will meet at Dulles International on February 2nd where we will catch our flight to Rwanda.

On Saturday and Sunday I will introduce Bob to Rwandan culture. We will visit the Genocide Memorial and the memorial at the Nyamata Church south of Kigali. Bob and I will preach on Sunday. No doubt, the Rwandans will invite Bob to dance in typical African worship. I will do my best to post a picture on the blog for your enjoyment.

Bob and I will study “Three Lessons on the Holy Spirit” with fifteen church leaders Monday—Friday (The Gift of the HS, The Gifts of the HS, and The Fruit of the HS). On Bob’s second Saturday, I will take him to Akagera National Park for an African Safari. Bob will fly out of Kigali on February 14.

The rest of February I will be equipping church leaders, visiting mission organizations, traveling to the southwest to experience where some of the church leaders live and making future plans to accomplish the vision.

The Vision

Rwanda Challenge... envisions local church leaders throughout Rwanda who have the capacity to lead the Rwandan Church and become missionaries to neighboring countries.

Frank studying Matthew 5-7 with fifteen Rwandan church leaders in June 2011

Proverbs 29:18
A nation without God’s guidance is a nation without order. Happy are those who keep God’s law!

If you want to help a nation, strengthen the local church.

If you want to strengthen
the local church, equip the leaders.

If you want to equip
the leaders, start with the Bible.

Prayer Requests (Phil. 1:9-11)

- An open heart to hear the Rwandan church leaders
- Wisdom and discernment in equipping church leaders
- Trustworthy Rwandan church leaders (2 Tim. 2:2)
- The financial resources to accomplish the vision

“Equip a Church Leader”

My daughter, Rebekah, will travel to Spain in February. On her trip, she will join me in Rwanda for ten days. She will get pictures and background stories of church leaders who are being equipped by Rwanda Challenge. Then, partners of Rwanda Challenge can elect to provide financially to equip one of these church leaders.
